

THE 2020 LIONEL GELBER PRIZE

CALL for SUBMISSIONS

The Lionel Gelber Prize was founded in 1989 by Canadian diplomat Lionel Gelber. The prize is a literary award for the world's best non-fiction book in English on foreign affairs that seeks to deepen public debate on significant international issues. A prize of $15,000 is awarded to the winner. The award is presented annually by The Lionel Gelber Foundation, in partnership with Foreign Policy magazine and the Munk School of Global Affairs & Public Policy at the University of Toronto.

To be eligible for the 2020 Lionel Gelber Prize, books must be published between 1 January 2019 and 31 December 2019. The deadline for submission is 31 October 2019. Manuscripts to be published between 31 October and 31 December 2019 may be submitted in galley form. A $100 USD per entry handling fee is required. Please make all cheques payable to the University of Toronto. Complete rules of eligibility can be found on the Prize website.

This year's Lionel Gelber Prize winner is Adam Tooze, for his book CRASHED: How a Decade of Financial Crises Changed the World published by Viking, an imprint of Penguin Random House.
