7.1  THEME ONE – Global Production Networks
Leaders: Joe Wong/Doug Fuller

1. What is the ICT/digital ecosystem like in specific geography/sector?
   How GPN are ultimately refracted through national / sectoral context.
2. What are the opportunities and challenges for Canadian firms with respect to plugging into these networks?

7.2  THEME TWO – Local Context for Global Networks
Leaders: Tijs Creutzberg/Tara Vinodrai

1. What are the defining variables of our digital case studies?
   Opportunities for comparisons: sector, city size, geography, innovation networks, digital technology, institutions etc.

Cont’d

7.2

2. To what extent do, or how important are, global variables (e.g. dynamics, networks, global firms) in your case studies?
3. What are the main findings / argument / narrative arising from our case studies?
   What is the most interesting / compelling finding or insight to date?
4. What main digital challenges and opportunities have you been able to identify?
5. What local institutions, if any, are showing to be important to shaping digital sector outcomes / performance?

7.3  THEME THREE – Diffusion of IT Across the Economy

   Leaders: Peter Philips / Peter Warrian

1. Given that the Theme 3 Diffusion of ICT across Economic Sectors needs to be contextualized in specific economic sectors, what are the main features / characteristics of the case you’re working on - i.e. agriculture, manufacturing, media …?
2. What are the points of disruption and of opportunity emerging in these industries? Give a few examples.
3. What are the challenges and opportunities for SMEs independently or within supply chains?
4. What is unique / generalizable about the particular industry you’re working on?

7.4  THEME FOUR – Digital Inclusion and Intelligent Communities

   Leaders: Neil Bradford / Allison Bramwell

1. How do we analytically capture the range of existing and emerging forms of the ‘digital divide’?
2. What is ‘inclusive innovation’? What are ‘intelligent communities’? Are definitions inherently context-specific or can we generalize? Are there overlaps between the two constructs?
3. What are the challenges and opportunities for each agenda in your area? Which aspects are most amenable to intervention?
4. What is the range of existing policies and programs that offer the prospect for expanding ‘inclusive innovation’ and ‘smart city’ practices to a greater number of people and places? What are the key drivers of policy &/or program innovation and at what scale do they operate?

12:00 – 13:00  Group Lunch - Concourse

13:00 – 14:30  SYNTHESIS SESSIONS – PART TWO
