GUEST SPEAKERS

DR. MARIA POPOVA, Associate Professor of Political Science at McGill University.

She held the Jean Monnet Chair “Europe and the Rule of Law” from 2017- 2021. Her work explores rule of law and judicial reform in the post-Communist region. Her first book Politicized Justice in Emerging Democracies (Cambridge UP, 2012) won the American Association for Ukrainian Studies prize for best book in the fields of Ukrainian history, politics, language, literature, and culture. Her recent work has focused on judicial reform in Ukraine, the politics of corruption prosecutions in Eastern Europe, conspiracies, and illiberalism. With Oxana Shevel, she is completing a book on the root causes of the Russo-Ukrainian war, entitled “Russia and Ukraine: Entangled Histories, Diverging States”.

TESS MEGGINSON, Ph.D. candidate in the Department of History at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Megginson currently holds a bachelor's in History from McGill University and an MA from CERES at the University of Toronto. While at CERES, Megginson wrote the thesis, “Shaping Europe’s Borderlands: Maps, Sovereignty, and Violence in Teschen, 1918-1920” Megginson has also presented at several conferences in Toronto and Montreal and was previously the Co-Chair of the CERES Graduate Student Conference. Megginson’s work has been published in Eurasiatique vol. VII and Re:Views Magazine vol. VIII.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The CERES Graduate Student Union and Conference Committee would like to express our thanks to our guest speakers, Dr. Maria Popova and Tess Megginson, as well as our chairs, Dr. William M. Jenkins, Dr. Serhiy Bilenky, Dr. Anna Shternshis, Dr. Milena B. Methodieva, Dr. Andres Kasekamp, Dr. Jennifer Jenkins, Dr. Ivan Kalmar, and Dr. Ed Schatz for their time and expertise.

We would also like to extend our gratitude to Larysa Iarovenko, Olga Kesarchuk, and Arba Bardhi for all their support in the planning process, and to the Centre for European, Russian, and Eurasian Affairs, the Munk School of Global Affairs and Public Policy, the Trudeau Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies, and the Hungarian Studies Program at the University of Toronto for their generous funding.

Last, but certainly not least, we would like to thank all of our presenters, without whom this conference would not be possible.

Sincerely,
CERES GSU & Conference Committee,
Michaela Nudo (Co-Chair)
Julia-Maria Xavier (Co-Chair)
